DARROW DEFENSE HAS COMMENCED

Many Commendations of Accused Read from Prominent Men.

Los Angeles, California, July 9.—The state rested late yesterday in the trial of Clarence S. Darrow and the defense that lawyer began immediately his fight against conviction of the charge of bribing a prospective juror in the McNamara dynamiting case. Two witnesses for the prosecution, Robert W. Bain, a first juror sworn to try J. B. McNamara, and Mrs. Dora Bain, his wife, were on the stand yesterday and at the conclusion of Mrs. Bain's cross-examination district attorney Fredericks announced that the state had concluded its case. The defense at once opened. Chief counsel Rogers began the reading of a formidable array of depositions taken in Chicago several months ago to show the good reputation and the high standing of Mr. Darrow in his profession and in the state of Illinois, which reputation, according to the deponents had not been altered because of his recent conduct. Rogers returned against him in California. Ex-senator Mason Comrade Darrow. A first character deposition read that of former state senator William E. Mason of Illinois. He said that he had known Mr. Darrow since 1890, when he was a member of the professional life, he said: "I have given careful analysis of Mr. Darrow's life. We are all Socialists, differing in a degree. If you analyze his life and his lectures, if he says it is philosophical anarchy, it means that real Socialism does not include forceful obedience to law."

Other Commendations.

The deposition of mayor Carter H. Harrison and his predecessor, Fred A. Harrison, were similar to those of the former senator. Former mayor Hempstead Washburn paid a high tribute to the defendant. Judge Simeon P. Shope, once chief justice of the Illinois supreme court, who was a friend of Abraham Lincoln and Stephen A. Douglas, read the deposition of the witness as to the offices he had held and those to which he had been elected.

Darrow Elected
